

5.2 Million Californians live in poverty.

16 Percent have been helped by Catholic Charities.

In 2017, local Catholic Charities delivered over 1.1 million services to Californians in need, including:

584,671 Food Assistance Services

291,006 Basic Needs and Financial Assistance Services

59,497 Refugee and Immigrant Services

34,962 Services for People Experiencing Homelessness

33,563 Quality of Life Services

19,491 Healthcare Assists

14,063 Mental Health Services

1,990 Disaster Recovery Services